Below is the body of a press release bearing on the sale. On Friday October 26th, there will be a reception hosted by the Elwood Museum to preview and purchase art. Tickets are limited..... call the Elwood to secure your place at this once-in-a-life-time event.

The Walter Elwood Museum is pleased to announce an Art Sale Preview on Friday, October 26th from 7 to 9 pm at 100 Church Street in the former Noteworthy Complex. The Museum is partnering with J & K Antiques and the Constantino Family to offer a special evening to enjoy the multitude and variety of art Thomas and Carol Constantino had so lovingly collected over the years. Guests will have the chance to bid and purchase art prior to the opening of the Art Sale on Saturday morning October 27th. Wine and cheese will be included in the ticket price. All proceeds will benefit the Walter Elwood Museum relocation fund drive.

The evening will be limited to 50 paid guests so please reserve your ticket as soon as possible. Tickets for the evening will be $20.00 per Museum current members and $25.00 for non- Museum members. All reservations must be paid in full prior to the evening of 10/26. Tickets may also be purchased in person at 328 Division Street, Monday through Friday between the hours of 9:00 am and 4:00 pm. Cash and checks will be accepted only.

For more information and to purchase a ticket please call the Museum at 843-5151 or Ann Peconie at 221-0174.

Phase Three (Open 10/27)-- The Constantino-Noteworthy Co. art holdings include: original acrylic, oils, pastels, signed and numbered prints, rubbings, lithographs, old maps and related paper products, including: Pablo Picasso (numbered prints), John Steele many originals, Edna Hibbel (numbered print), Bob Tomberlake (numbered prints), Sarah Linder, Jane E Radison, Vera Eksarehow, Fellium, Bonet, F. Harvey, M Vander Veer, C. M Coolidge, M.S Kolb, Tony Biscotti, Ken Schmidt (numbered prints), Jenness Cortez more to be listed & shown in photos.

The sale will end on Sunday October 28th, but entire warehouse and art collections will be available to buyers during the art sale until the close. Consolidation of holdings may reduce the number of bays open in the warehouse.

We are still discovering things and will continue to post photos and descriptions prior to the sale.
