

The Amerindian North American Martyrs' Shrine-Church at Peekskill, N.Y., resembles an Iroquois longhouse.

The Stations of the Cross are the artistic creations of Mr. Joel Blake, a long-time friend of the Lily of the Mohawks. The legends are in the Iroquois language.

