❖ Kateri's smile upon you, Mrs. E. A. !

I pray to Kateri every day and recently I had to have a series of X-rays that I was very worried about. I prayed Kateri would see me through. She did. They turned out fine and so I am sending a ten-dollar donation and I shall keep on praying and remembering Kateri.

Enclosed find a check for two dollars in thanksgiving to Kateri for bringing us home safely from a small trip, when our car became partially disabled on the weekend here in the States. Every repair shop and gas station was closed over the weekend. Our prayers to Kateri brought us through. Enclosed, also, is my pledge for her needed beatification.

You will find enclosed a five-dollar bill in honor of Kateri for a favor obtained through her intercession. My son-in-law was to be laid off and work here is none too easy to be found. So I prayed to Kateri, and he was fortunate to be transferred for the same company. In your faithful prayers, think of us; we have great confidence in Kateri.

Enclosed is a money order for five dollars in fulfillment of a promise I made to Kateri, for the cure of certain health problems I was experiencing several weeks ago. I am so very grateful to Kateri for her help in many problems. I wish to enroll my subscription also.

❖ Kateri's smile upon you, Miss T. T. !

I have been informed by my close friend, Mrs. F. K. P., that I should write to you, concerning my prayers to Kateri Tekakwitha. For three months, I have been asking for a miracle. I am making a novena to her, and intend to do so once a month, until my prayers have been answered. The miracle is this: for all North American Indians, regardless of tribe, religion or age, to come together in honor, friendship, and understanding, and talk out their problems. With young against old, longhouse against other religions, suspicion and jealousy against love and respect, I fear this division may conquer these beautiful peoples.
