TWENTY-FIVE PRAYER PLEDGES OR MORE

No parcel of 25 or more prayer pledges and only 169 in all reached the vice-postulator's desk during the last three months. The Vatican would be impressed if two or three thousand came in every three months and the good Lord even more!

IN THIS ISSUE

On May 25, the New York Catholic, official organ of the archdiocese of New York, published an article on the 85th anniversary of the Marquette League devoted to Native Americans, featuring a group of young Mohawks from the St. Regis Reserve, Quebec. The editor graciously permitted its appearance in the Kateri quarterly.

Mary-Eunice completes her Life of Fr. Joseph. S. McBride, former vice-postulator of Kateri at Auriesville, N. Y. For twenty years and more, Father was a fantastic servant of Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha. You will enjoy this sequel as much if not more than the beginning.

Fr. Martial Caron, S.J., went to his reward Sunday, July 9. During the years he spent at

On September 25, 1961, Fr. Martial Caron quit Caughnawaga to return to Saint-Boniface, Manitoba, his homeland.

Caughnawaga, he devoted himself among other things to adapting church music to the beautiful Iroquois language. Fr. Louis Cyr, S.J., musicologist, who is completing his thesis for his doctorate in music, wrote "Moved to Tears," the very day of his death.

JOYFUL LOVER

Sister Mary Pelagia Litkowski, O.P. is the author of a biography of Kateri entitled Joyful Lover.

Gus Antonone, a Native American, illustrated it, and Growth Unlimited Inc. 31 East Avenue South, Battle Creek, Michigan 49017, published it. (59 p. ISBN 0-91127-10-5) Price $5.95. This is a beautiful popular life of Blessed Kateri. Both young and old will enjoy it.

The author has succeeded in capturing the joy which characterizes Blessed Kateri's mentality whereas too many writers and artists portray her as grim-faced and unresponsive. This biography is enhanced by a foreword of the American Vice-Postulator, Fr. Robert J. Boyle and by Fr. Gilbert F. Hemauer, OFM Cap., Executive Director of the Tekakwitha Conference.

SURVIVAL FIRST

In order to assure the survival of the Kateri quarterly, it has been reduced a few pages. The Kateri staff hopes to compensate by the quality of its articles.

BLESSED KATERI AT FONDA

The 1989 Northeast Tekakwitha Conference began at the Fonda National Shrine on the Blessed Kateri Feastday, Friday July 14th (U.S.A.), to Sunday noon the 16th. A Candlelight Service, a Sunrise Service, and a Native American Fashion Show were featured besides the different workshops treating of germane topics such as Family Spirituality, Alcohol and Drugs. Julie Daniels of Syracuse gave an
