

The Little Prince II

A priest of Chicoutimi diocese Fr. Émilien Bergeron has sent us a modern fable concerning abortion:

"The little Prince II resides on a planet with three other children." Their speech is childlike. The other day, the little Prince came to the earth and reported this to the children: "In Spring, on this great Planet, there are a lot of flowers around the homes and of the pares surrounded with green. I don't see any children playing in the flowers."

But I saw a great building, on the opposite ground where there were thousands of tulips, and three guards with rifles. I came close to one of them and asked him "Do you mind if I caress a few flowers and if I pick one to smell its perfume?" "A brisk "no" came out of his mouth and he added: " Don't touch one of these flowers; it is forbidden. "Timid, I told him: "If an invisible gas that we use for war, would only touch the roots of theses tulips, what would happen? - "All the flowers would die, for sure." told me this proud guard of the flowers.

I left him quite surprised. I walked a little further and approached a magnificent garden where a very gentle lady talked to me about her flowers. "You like flowers? -"Yes, assuredly." -" You have children??" - "No but I love them as much as flowers. Then you understand me. On my part, I didn't want the children to develop in my body, see the misery and hunger in the world, and that they ruin my flowers. So, with a health technician, I stopped them from living, somewhat like we make disappear the roots of certain plants that we don't want to see in our gardens. "Hearing these comments, the three children cried out: "We will not invite this gentle lady to come on our planet, because like the armed guard, she doesn't let the children touch the flowers Then, we very well doubt that this lady doesn't know what it is to love."

Kateri's AWARD: A True Story

It was my first retreat preached to nuns in the diocese of Saint Jean -Longueuil, and for a distraction, the nuns introduced me to a family of the town, owner of a huge furniture store. It gave me the occasion to introduce to them Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha. This brought my new friends to develop a special devotion to the good Kateri. One of the girls fell sick. Her sister, a CND nun; came to her rescue like a guardian angel. She also called Kateri to the rescue of her sister. But Lorraine in spite of all the help flew to heaven to meet Blessed Kateri.

Since then, 15 years have passed Lorraine's sister has a special attachment to Kateri. At the Regina Assunta College, where she is an advisor, students and teachers get to know Kateri. At the same time, she finds means to support Kateri's Cause generously.

This is why; the Kateri Center will confer to the sister of Lorraine the KATERI Award, on Kateri's Feast day, celebrated on April 23. Congratulations to Sr Yolande Ethier, c.n.d.
