Greeting from the Vice-Postulator

When will Blessed Kateri be canonized? This continues to be the question asked by community members and also by pilgrims who come to visit our Shrine of Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha.

Canonization can happen when the community unites and prays together for healing. The community must have devotion for Kateri. Canonization comes from the devotion of the entire community. Where there is unity the Creator is present watching over, protecting the entire village from all harm.

In my official role as Canadian Vice-Postulator for Blessed Kateri's Cause I continue to communicate with many Catholic parishes and organizations throughout Canada. In the coming weeks I will begin visiting parishes throughout the Diocese speaking on the life of Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha. I want to deliver a special message to the youth, our hope for a brighter future.

My wife Sheila and I have been travelling for more than twenty five years, promoting Blessed Kateri's Cause through workshops that focus on reconciliation and healing. Through the intercession of Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha many believers have received healing with the laying on of hands. We have witnessed many healings in our travelling Kateri Healing Ministry. Through our workshops there have also been remarkable healings within families and between cultures.

As the new Vice-Postulator I feel that I have been entrusted by the Holy Spirit to make known the graces accessible to us through devotion to Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha. Very little is known about the Lily of the Mohawks who blossomed in our land.

I wish to bring more knowledge about this person of holiness who is soon to be elevated to the highest honors in the Holy Catholic Church to priests, religious and lay people throughout the dioceses.

Blessed Kateri held strongly within her heart a 'baptism of desire' to found a community of religious women, and renounced marriage in her perpetual vows of virginity and chose Jesus for her spouse, that she be the intercessor for all people.

In closing, I invite you to call upon Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha to be your spiritual guide and intercessor in all your endeavors to bring the graces of the Holy Spirit into your relationships and community.

Deacon Ronald Boyer, V.P.
