

Charles Michael Angelo Lang

Edit Profile

artist sculptor

Charles Michael Angelo Lang, American artist, sculptor. Awarded prize for painting; also prize for sculpture (monument to Edward Kelsey Apgar, at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York. Mason.

Background

Lang, Charles Michael Angelo was born on August 26, 1860 in Albany, New York, United States. Son of John M. and Anna (Bates) Language.

Education

Educated Cooper Union, New York. Royal Academy, Munich, Bavaria, and in Italy, France, and London, England.

Career

Formerly director and principal Emma Willard School of Art, Troy, New York. Director George West Museum, Round Lake, New York. Director Round Lake Summer School of Art.

Superintendent sculpture work of Grand Staircase of the State Capitol, Albany, New York, etc. Painted portraits of Theodore Roosevelt, David B. Hill, Roswell P. Flower, Judge Morgan J. O'Brien, General J. B. Carr, Bishop Rooker, John Wanamaker, etc.

Membership

Mason.

Connections

Married Frances Neville Byrne (died 1923). Children: Charles Neville, Frances Madeline, Victoria Adelle, Esther Miriam, Elizabeth Jane.

father: John M. Lang

mother: Anna (Bates) Lang

spouse: Frances Neville Byrne

child: Elizabeth Jane Lang

child: Charles Neville Lang

child: Frances Madeline Lang

child: Esther Miriam Lang

child: Victoria Adelle Lang