Mary Eunice Spagnola, 86, of Las Vegas, passed away Monday, April 18, 2005. She was born in Rochester, N.Y., and resided in Las Vegas for three years. Mary was a playwright, actress, teacher and a wonderful human being. She was the co-founder of Mary Productions, where her scripts have been utilized all over the world. The Library of Congress lists many of her literary works. Mary performed for the Vatican, Lincoln Society and PBS. Her work with the Mohawk Indians was renowned and she was made an honorary princess of the tribe. She was loved by many and is survived by her son, Joseph; brother, Jimmy; granddaughter, Carrie; and her adopted children, Judee, Barbara and Charles. We celebrate your life and love you very much. Services are pending.
