

Mary Eunice Spagnola

Edit Profile

educator author actress

Mary Eunice Spagnola, American actress, author, educator. Named Woman of Year, New York City, 1983; recipient Tekakwitha award, Auriesville, 1970, Todd Lincoln award, Lincoln presenters, 1996.

Background

Spagnola, Mary Eunice was born in Rochester, New York, United States. Daughter of Edward James and Maud Margaret (Westerby) Sayrahder.

Education

Student, Furlong School Drama, 1938—1943.

Career

Director Mary Productions, 1950—1985. Producer Monmouth County, New Jersey, 1963—1978. Monologist North America Martyrs Shrine, Auriesville, New York, Tekawitha Shrine, Fonda, Our Lady Fatima Shrine, Youngstown, St. John Neumann Shrine, Philadelphia, The Scapular Court, Aylesford, New York, Our Lady of Fatima Shrine, Blue Army, Washington, Immaculate Conception Shrine, Washington, Marian Shrine, Haverstraw, New York.

Achievements

Mary Eunice Spagnola has been listed as a notable actress, author, educator by Marquis Who's Who.

Works

Other Work

Author: Center Stage, 1972, (plays) Apostleship of Prayer, 1973. Contributor articles to religious publications.

Connections

Married Joseph H. Spagnola, August 27, 1946 (deceased 1982). 1 child Joseph E.

Father: Edward James Sayrahder

Mother: Maud Margaret (Westerby) Sayrahder

Spouse: Joseph H. Spagnola

child: Joseph E. Spagnola